NECROLOGY FOR 1870.—Giving precedence to the Church, the first name on the list as wel as the latest added to it, is that of Rev. Albert Barnes, who for forty years had filled a promi-nent position in Philadelphia as a minister, and in the theological world as a writer and com-mentator. Dr. Rowland Williams, of England. mentator. Dr. Rowland Williams, of Englands one of the most brilliant writers in the celebrated "Essays and Reviews," is another to be mentioned; also Bishops Calvin Kingsley and Edward Thomson, of the Methodist Church; Bishop Chase, of the Episcopal Church, and Rov. Dr. McClintock, Death has been more busy among statesinen of all ranks, especially in America; but among those of wide-world celebrity whom he has called away may be noticed Lord Clarendon, Anson Burlingame, Pierre Soule, Earl Mayo, the Count de Montalembert, the Duke de Broglie, A. T. Marie, of the French provisional government of 1848, P. the French provisional government of 1848, P.

J. Baroche, and President Salnave, of Hayti. Literature has sustained by far the heaviest losses. Foremost stands the name of Charles Dickens, and next to it that of Alexander Dumas. Then follow those of Jehn E. Reade the poet,) Mark Lemon (editor of the London Punch,) E. T. Blanchard, Cyrus Redding, John P. Kennedey (author of "Life of Wirt,") Geo. D. Prentice, Wm. Gilmore Sims, &c. In the department of art the world has lost Mrs. Anna Cora Mowatt Ritchie, (actress and author.) Michael W. Balfe, Lefebere Wely, Straus and De Beriot (composers and musicians.)

Joseph Mozier and Robert E. Launitz (the sculptors,) and Daniel Maclise, one ef the greatest of English painters. Mr. Maclise was engaged to be married to Miss Fanny Hogarth (the eldest sister-in-law of Charles Dickens,) whose melancholy end (she dropped dead after dinner) has been pathetically alluded to by the great novelist.

The military service at home and abroad also mourns its losses; so does the naval; indeed the mortality among the superor officers of the navy has been extraordinary. The names of Admirals Dahlgren, Farragut and Breese; of Commodores Champlin, Ritchie, Boyle, Madigan, Carter and Gardner, and of Captains Meade, Robinson and Harrison, will occur to every one. And in the army and the recent military service there is to be recorded the loss of Generals George H. Thomas McGroarty, Granger, Mower, Liddell, Ripley, Hall Ham-blin, Seebach, Leech, Brooks and Hitchcock, and their adversaries in arms, Generals Robert E. Lee, W. F. Brantly and J. W. Sanford. The mortality among distinguished foreign military men has also been considerable. The list includes the Prince of Salm-Salm, the Count de Flahault, Sir de Lacy Evans, Marshals St. Jean d' Angely and Hess, Generals Lowestine, Guyon, (of Hungarian fame.) Chruleff and Of foreign naval men the only one known by repute here in Captain Cowper Coles the architect of the unfortunate turret-ship Captain, who went down with that ill-fated vessel off Cape Finisterre, on the night of the ninth of September.

The law has lost at least one distinguished man in our own country, the late Justice Grier, and two in England, viz : Sir Frederick Pollock, (Lord Chief Baron ef the Exchequer,) and Lord Justice Giffard. Medicine has to mourn for Sir James Y. Simpson and Professor Syme, of Edinburg; Sir James Clark, Sir Wm. C. Hood, Dr. Bright and Dr. Copland of London; Dr. Cabarrus, of Paris, and Von Graefe, the great oculist of Berlin. The stage (in addition to Mrs. Ritchie) misses the gifted Levasser, Leigh Murray, Lemaitre and Marie Taglioni. And of those who may be classed as celebrities, without being great, may be named Jerome NapoleonBonaparte of Baltimore, Baron Nathaniel Rothschild of Paris, Richard Tatter sall of London, (the great horse dealer,) Roderer, (the great dealer in champagne.) and Greene, (the English eronaut, immortalized by Dickens.)

AN INQUISITIVE TRAVELER.—A correspondent relates the following as his own personal experience:

I left New York for Albany in no very plea sant mood. Getting up for an early train is neither customary nor agreeable with me; the coffee was muddy, and the toast abominable. I got into a muss with a hackman about my fare to the depot, my finger was jammed in the car door, and a fat man stepped on my toe as I moved to my seat. My face, I know, looked forbidding, and though the car was full, the seat beside me was not taken. We had gone past two or three stations when a tall, broadshouldered farmer-looking fellow got into the car, and without a "By your leave," or "Is this scat engaged?" down he sat by me. I gave him a severe look, that ought to have annihilated him, and the car moved on. By-and-by my attention was attracted by a gentle touch.

'Pleasant day.' gave him, to understand, in a curt way, that I didn't care if it was. After awhile he reached his long neck out by me and said yawn-ingly: Looks as ef we should hev some rain,

I let the remark pass without reply, deter-mined he should not draw me out. After some miles he again spoke :

'Killed a hog last night. 'Well, what's that to me?" I said, sharply. "Guess how much it weighed." "O, don't bother me six hundred pounds."

'Guess ag'n,' after a pause. "Well, say a hundred pounds."

The challenge to guess had a trifle of intetest in it, but in a moment, ashamed of having shown any at all, I thrust my head out of the windew. awaiting my sturdy associate's further advances. He made none, and after riding ten or fifteen minutes, I looked around. He was staring out of the window, apparently lost in reflection.

"How much did your cussed hog weigh, any how?" I asked, as surly as I could. His face didn't change a muscle, though I thought his eye looked a little mischievous, as may religiously confide in his honor as a gentle-man, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician. ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

'Don't know, we didn't weigh him." Fortunately for my peace of mind, he got out at the next station.

Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgencies. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the neutral powers are lost, sooner by those fallunderstands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent?
Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS. Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!

Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immedi-DR. JOHNSTON Member of the Royal College of Surgery of Lon-Member of the Royal College of Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the bead and ears when select great prevausness.

the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with dorangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz:

Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Func-tions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consump-MENTALLY. - The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE. Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-time sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns.' It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the consitution and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy suf-ferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being re-stored to a renewal of Life, Vigorand Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment. DR. JOHNSTON,
